

Yurik Opens a Bank Account

Yurik has saved a lot of money. He wants to put it into the bank.

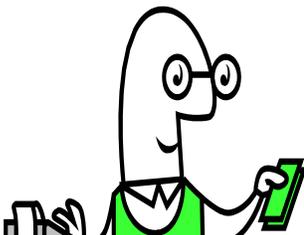

He goes to the bank with his money.

He tells the bank teller he wants to open a bank account.

He meets with a bank representative to open a bank account. They discuss the different kinds of accounts he can choose to open.

Yurik is very happy. He learned about the different accounts and chose one that is right for him. He deposited his money into his new account.
